Francisco.
San Francisco, May 11.—Bob Fitzsimmons was given a royal welcome by lovers of the boxing game in this city who hope that with the ex-champion on the ground the question of a date and club for his fight with Jeffries will be settled without much difficulty.
The only stumbling block apparent in the way of an early decision as to where the contest may be held lies in the intense jealousy existing between local fight promoters.
A couple of prominent local clubs are reaching out after this important match, and will spare no efforts to secure it. Either of the organizations would sooner see the match go to Loo Angeles or any other town, rather than allow its riyal to secure it.
This is an unhealthy state of things for the game, and nobody would be much surprised if the bickerings of the board of supervisors to grant a license for the contest. It is well known that Fitzsimmons has strong oblections to fighting Jeffries in Los Angeles, deem ing the champion too great a favorite in that city.

As far as the big fellow is concerned.
Jeffries refuses to respond to any overtures made him by the rival rubs until his prospective opponent speaks for himself.
Harry Corbett said his brother Jim would assuredily be on hand to witness the big fight and challenge the winner for a battle to take place in September.
The Hayes Valley Athletic club, which corbett is a charter member, will make an offer for a fight between Corbett and the victor in the Jeffries
